

Cookie Policy

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files that are placed on a user's device by a website in order to ensure its proper functioning, enhance security, and provide a reliable user experience.

2. What cookies do we use and why?

This website uses only cookies that are strictly necessary for its operation. These cookies are required to enable the registration process, manage user sessions, identify users securely, and ensure the technical security of the system.

The website does not use analytical or statistical cookies, marketing or advertising cookies, or third-party tracking technologies.

3. Cookies used on this website

- ci_session – Strictly necessary – Session management – 1 hour

4. Consent to the use of cookies

The cookies listed above are technically essential for the proper operation of the website. In accordance with applicable legislation, in particular the ePrivacy Directive and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the use of these cookies does not require the user's prior consent.

5. Cookie management

As the website uses only strictly necessary cookies, these cookies cannot be disabled through the website. Users may delete or block cookies via their browser settings; however, this may result in limited functionality.

6. Third-party cookies

This website does not place or use cookies from third parties.

7. Related documents

Further information regarding the processing of personal data in connection with cookies can be found in our Privacy Policy.

8. Updates to this Cookie Policy

We reserve the right to update this Cookie Policy to reflect changes in legal requirements or website operation.
